1.	Welcome Councillor Huw Thomas and Minister Jane Hutt welcomed colleagues to the joint meeting of the Cardiff Public Services Board and the Ministerial Group established to support the development of the Ely & Caerau Community Plan. It was acknowledged that the events of May 2023 were unsettling for everyone and promoted an outpouring of community spirit and determination to come together to make a positive difference in Ely and Caerau. Receiving the completed Ely & Caerau Community Plan is an important milestone, following nearly a year’s worth of engagement, conversation and design, where over 1,200 came forward to offer their ideas, priorities and share their experiences.
2.	Community Plan for Ely & Caerau Becky Matyus presented the Ely & Caerau Community Plan to attendees. It was noted that, at every step, the Community Plan has been co-created with residents of all ages, people who work in Ely and Caerau, and with public and voluntary sector services from across the city. After gathering almost 4,000 comments across 47 engagements, the key issues that people raised were grouped into six broad themes for action: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Children & Young People 2. Community Safety & Safeguarding 3. Spaces and the Environment 4. Health & Wellbeing 5. Employment, Living Standards & Cost of Living 6. Communication and Community Building Many of the actions set out in the Community Plan are for local public services to deliver, whilst others are for local groups and charities to lead on. The actions will be delivered with continue engagement with local people, building upon the relationships and partnerships formed over the last year as the Community Plan was developed. Public service attendees offered their full commitment to the delivery of the Community Plan.
